

I want you know that K-Love serves us as a resident of our local community, and while we are listening to it here, relatives across the US are listening with us. I believe that the service that KLOVE is doing for us as a family and we as a nation is in the public interest. To finally have a station like KLOVE in our local community, it would be sorely missed if it were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming